

THE LEAD PROGRAM FOR IMPROVING WORK UNIT PERFORMANCE & LEADERSHIP

The LEAD Program provides an application and output driven learning process to help leaders increase their impact and effectiveness in leading people, leading change and managing systems for results. Along with a vision and a detailed roadmap for your personal and work-unit's effectiveness, you will leave LEAD with deeper insight into yourself as a leader, what others need from you, and how you can best prepare yourself and your work-unit for the future. Insights and explicit plans for improvement emerge from these three focus areas:

2020 Session Dates

March 16 - 18

October 19 - 21

Location

Ann Arbor, Michigan

Tuition

$2,350

Includes:

Instructional material, Leadership 360° & style assessments, post session coaching & and all meals

Contact

Kate Henson

The LEAD Institute

734.995.5222

Kate@LEADInstitute.com

Register

LEADInstitute.com

Work Unit Culture Change & Performance Improvement

- Assess your work unit's current culture with emphasis on teamwork, structure, innovation and results
- Analyze what is working and what's not in your current culture
- Create a detailed roadmap for your work unit's desired future culture for improving performance

Transformational Leadership & Transactional Management

- Use 360° assessment feedback to hone-in on your effectiveness and impact as a leader of people and manager of systems
- Create change plans to improve your transformational & transactional management effectiveness

Enhancing Personal Style

- Complete an in-depth analysis of your personal style strengths
- Define the personal style approaches you under use and should use more often
- Learn how to flex your style to work better with others

LEAD is a high involvement, interactive, applied and personalized learning experience tailored to the needs and demands placed on upper level and senior level leaders. This program is designed for managers who are serious about personal improvement, committed to adding value to their organizations and enhancing their careers. You'll spend the majority of time focusing on what's important to you, your future and your company—not theory. The full-time faculty provides you with ample opportunity for one-on-one coaching each day to ensure you get personal guidance every step of the way.